Bamboo Design

by Emanuela Garbin - Michela Boglietti

Interior design, product design, progettazione grafica, comunicazione visiva, sono le esperienze e i percorsi complementari che si uniscono e intersecano dando origine a contaminazione e dialoghi progettuali inusuali, spesso rendendo dinamico il racconto tra idea, rappresentazione visiva e la sua traduzione in oggetto.

Interior design, product design, graphic design and visual communication: all are experiences and complementary approaches that come together and interact to yield unusual influences and dialogues in design. Often they can provide a dynamic take on how ideas are expressed and visually represented, and how these translate into objects.
